

Suscilia and Roberto promise each other love forever

On Saturday, Suscilia Fernandes and Roberto Coronado got married at Aruba's Civil House, located in a beautifully restored monument on Wilhelminastraat. The union was witnessed officially by Washington Aguilar and Benvinda Fernandes, friends of the bride and groom. Roberto and Suscilia – both came to Aruba to work, met here and fell in love... the rest is history. Present at the ceremony were also friends of the couple and colleagues of Suscilia from the Maharaj Indian Restaurant. Photos by Maiky Wernet show the Coronados posing in the garden of City Hall, and with friends and family members on the steps in front of the building.
